

What Happens Next????

If you know a high school student with disabilities and are wondering what options (College? Trade School? Work?) are available upon leaving High School—come to the:

College Night Fair

sponsored by: Bellmore-Merrick SEPTA and The Community Parent Center

where: Kennedy High School
3000 South Bellmore Ave Bellmore, NY 11710
when: Tuesday Nov. 19th registration begins at 5:30 p.m.
information tables open at 6:00 p.m.
program begins at 7:00 p.m.

Meet Disability Service Representatives from Long Island Schools and Agencies

Appropriate for parents, students, teachers and counselors

For questions/further information please email bellmoremerricksepta@gmail.com

Bellmore-Merrick Central High School District and Bellmore-Merrick SEPTA and the Community Parent Center Present:

Creating a Path for Students with Disabilities from High School → to College ***** ****** and other opportunities!

Kennedy High School 3000 S. Bellmore Ave Bellmore, NY 11710

Tuesday November 19th, 2013 6pm

Free and open to all

Appropriate for Parents, Students, Teachers and Counselors

Meet Disability Services Representatives from Long Island Schools.

Adelphi University Five Towns College Hofstra University NYIT Mitchell College Suffolk Community College C.W. Post Molloy College Dowling College Fordham University Nassau Community College: Basic Education and Achilles Project .....and more!!

In addition there will be representatives from:

JCCA Compass Program Long Island Advocacy Center ACCES-VR Hempstead Works Lifelong Learning New Frontiers in Learning, LLC Cody Center, College Support Transition Specialist from the RSE-TASC CCB Educational Consulting LI Parent Center

New to our Fair:

🔀 Representatives from area Trade Schools such as:

Access Careers Commercial Driver Training Adv. Mfg. Training Center .....and more!!

Electrical Training Center Career Inst. of Health & Technology

Panel Presentation to include:

Post-Secondary options, No IEP in college, Idea vs. ADA 504, ACCES, Post High School planning Parent and student perspectives on post secondary experiences.

For Questions/information: Please contact Cheryl Gitlitz, LCSW, at (516) 992-1349 or bellmoremerricksepta@gmail.com

Registration form – SEPTA College Night 2013

Name(s):	Parent	_ Student	Professional	_
	Parent	_ Student	Professional
School District/School:	/_
Number attending: email address:			@
To RSVP : BMCHSD SEPTA c/o Kennedy High S	School

3000 S. Bellmore Ave Bellmore, NY 11710

or via email: bellmoremerricksepta@gmail.com